

FREE CHARITY PROPERTY SEMINAR

11 May 2023 | 12.30pm - 1.30pm
Cambridge

MANAGING A CHARITY PROPERTY? HOW TO CUT COSTS, MAXIMIZE USE, MOVE ON...

About the seminar

For any charity managing a property, these are challenging times: inflation; hybrid working; cost of living crisis; growing statutory compliance; recession; plus tough financial after-effects of the pandemic, It has never been harder to make the most of your space, cut your bills and see a way forward.

East Anglian law firm, Ashtons Legal, is teaming up with the UK's number one property advice charity for the voluntary sector, the Ethical Property Foundation, to invite you to a free seminar to help you see a brighter future for your property.

The speakers

Chair: Antonia Swinson, CEO of Ethical Property Foundation.

- Michael Fahy, Partner at Ashtons Legal
- Rhian Brook, Senior Associate at Ashtons Legal
- Kirsteen Durrant, Partner at Ashtons Legal
- Simon Taylor, Head of Property Advisory at Ethical Property Foundation.

Learn how to maximise your space and property income for the good of your charity's balance sheet as well as your beneficiaries. Find out how to exit your property successfully and steer a calm legal course through hybrid working.

BOOK NOW

